HYMENEAL EVENTS

Two Marriages Solemnized in Norfolk Churches Yesterday.

Miss Carrio Lee Dudley United to Mr. the P. Grandy the Bride of Mr. James H. Graves-An Elopement.

A brilliant and fashionable wedding was celebrated at St. Peter's P. E. Church, Brambleton Ward, at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon, when Miss Carrie Lee Dudley, daughter of the late J. J. and Mrs. C. M. Dudley, became the bride of Thomas Ramsay Taylor, a popular young druggist of Norfolk.

The church decorations were ciaborate and beautiful and showed exquisite taste on the part of those who arranged them.

The bride was becomingly attired in a traveling costume of brown Venetian cloth, with hat and gloves to corres-pend, and carried white chrysanthemums.

The role of maid of honor was filled by Miss Elizabeth Richardson, cousin of the bride. She wore a gray broadcloth suit with velvet hat and gloves to match and carried white chrysanthemums.

Mr. C. T. Gibson, of Washington, D. C., cousin of the groom, was best man, and the ushers were Messrs, Joseph R. Ives, Oscur Scott, Hunter W. Forrest and W. H. Ashburn, The groom, his best man and ushers appeared in full black suits.

The wedding party reached the church promptly at the hour ennounced and proceeded up the aisle in the following order; The ushers, two abreast, followed by the maid of honor, the bride in rear, escorted by her brother, Mr. C. Lee Dudley, by whom she was given away. The wedding march from Lohengrin was skillfully executed by the organist of the church, Professor Charles Borjes.

been arranged. This is a special course in mechanical and free-hand drawing, under the direction of Mr. George F. Beach, chief draughtsman in the steam engineering department of Norfolk navy yard.

The class in this special course will meet every Tuesday and Thursday night, beginning October 31st.

It is proposed to begin at the beginning and give the students a practical working knowledge of drawing. A knowledge of drawing, a knowledge of drawing is invaluable to all young men who contemplate following any line of mechanical work, and a knowledge of free-hand drawing is of great usefulness in many of the professions.

Mr. Beach will be at the association office, No. 199 Main street, Tuesday and Thursday nights, October 24th and 26th, from $ to 9:30 o'clock, especially to meet those who desire to join the class. Any one may join.

Tobacco Company, with his attorney, Mr. P. J. Morris, left last night for New York. They will appear before the District Court of the United States for the Southern District of New York today in opposition to granting a discharge in bankruptcy to Henry Hofhelmer, formerly of this city.

The case is one to which much interest attaches because of the heavy liabilities of the petitioner. Mr. Hofhelmer formerly was the senior member of the firm of Hofhelmer, Son & Co., boot and shoe jobbers of this city. The firm went to the wall several years ago, with liabilities aggregating nearly a half million dollars. It is said that the Hamburger Tobacco Company are creditors for a large sum, and with other creditors are fighting the petition of Henry Hofhelmer.

PROGRESS WITH NEUSE—TO INSTALL MACHINERY HERE—THE BERTIE & MAUD'S TRIP.
The barge Daisy that was sunk by collision with an abutment of the Norfolk and Western railway bridge, while being towed through the bridge on Friday last, has been raised by the proprietors of the tug Gen. Mott, of Baltimoe. Her load of 3,000 cak ties was intact. A coffer dam was built around a hatchway and the barge pumped out by the Mott and towed to Baltimore by the tug Alert, starting last night.

As is very generally known, the first entertainment in this series, "The Juch Concert," including America's most famous quariette, will be given at the box office Friday morning, at $1 for general admission, and 50 cents for the balcony. As heretofore announced, it will to some extent be a "full dress" artifair, but people who prefer to come at tired otherwise will see and hear as much.

The Committee of Arrangements especially requests that all persons cellecting money for this course will turn it over to Mrs. George Newton, the treasurer of this fund, on Freemason street.

Proveral of Br. Churles Q. Scott, whose death has been noted, were held from St. Luke's P. E. Church at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The services were conducted by Rev. F.
